

RÉTROMOBILE SHOW:
CLASSIC CARS WILL ONCE AGAIN BE TAKING UP RESIDENCE AT THE PORTE DE VERSAILLES EXHIBITION CENTRE IN PARIS FROM 5 TO 9
FEBRUARY 2020

If there's one event that you really should not miss in early 2020, it's the Rétromobile Show. A heartfelt ode to all things on wheels from all ages, this exceptional event will be kicking off world vintage car week from 5 February to 9 February 2020 at the Paris Porte de Versailles Exhibition Centre.

Rétromobile, it's a love letter to all vintage cars and vehicles wheels of all genres that have fashioned the history of mobility – all the cars, motorcycles, tanks and other armoured vehicles, lorries, tractors and bone shakers – all of these emblems of the past that have fashioned our vehicle heritage.

Spread over 3 halls (the equivalent of more than 72,000 m²), more than 600 exhibitors come to the show every year to present nearly 1000 models to the delight of visitors to the event. For those who pass through its doors, Rétromobile is an opportunity to go back in time and live their passion. Dream, delight, find out information, invest, meet artists, clubs and federations, bookshops, rally organisers, spare parts and miniature sellers, restorers, car dealers, auction houses, mechanics, insurance company reps, manufacturers – everything goes at Rétromobile!

And since Rétromobile is the place to be for classic cars, enthusiasts, amateurs or just people who are curious can come along and be part of it all – as they do every year. Or they can just visit the Show's official auction on 7 February organised by Artcurial Motorcars. Top billing for 2020 is the Alfa Romeo 8C which was sold for nearly €17 million (US$19 million) in 2019, including fees.
